FALL 2024 THEME: ORIENTATION & MOBILITY

Webinar: Is a White Cane Right for Me?

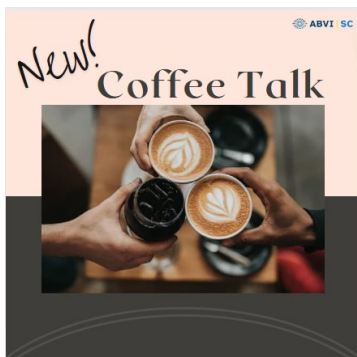

This hour-long webinar aims to provide individuals with low vision with a basic understanding of the white cane and its role in promoting independence and mobility. Participants will learn about the various types of white canes, their benefits and who could benefit from a white cane. This event will be held VIRTUALLY on September 10th from 1 – 2:00 p.m.

Webinar: White Cane Day Celebration

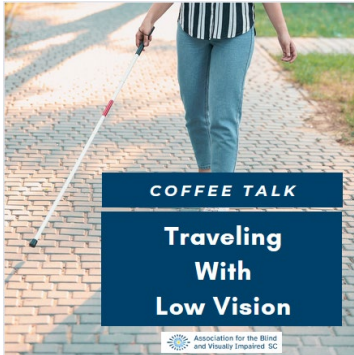

This hour-long webinar celebrates White Cane Day by highlighting the significance of the white cane as a symbol of independence and mobility for people who are blind or have low vision. The event will feature informative presentations on the history and importance of White Cane Day, personal stories from white cane users and discussions on the impact of the white cane in the lives of individuals with low vision. Participants will also be entered into a drawing for a special give-away! This VIRTUAL celebration will be held October 15th from 1 – 2:00 p.m.

NEW this year: Coffee Talks!

Join us for an hour of relaxed and engaging conversation over coffee and treats, where we share stories and practical tips about this quarter's theme. These sessions provide a supportive community space to freely share experiences, discuss challenges, exchange solutions and connect with others who understand the journey. Join us for a Coffee Talk near you, as we will host meetings in the Lowcountry, Midlands and Upstate of South Carolina each quarter.

Coffee Talk: Traveling with Low Vision

Pour yourself a cup of coffee, grab a doughnut and share your stories and struggles on traveling with low vision.

This informal, hour-long coffee talk session is designed for individuals with low vision to discuss the challenges and solutions related to traveling. The session will provide a platform for sharing experiences, tips, and resources, fostering a supportive community atmosphere. Participants will have the opportunity to learn from each other and discuss various aspects of traveling, from daily commutes to long-distance journeys.
