

Transition Services at ABVI

Transition services support students ages 13 to 21 who need additional assistance with the Expanded Core Curriculum or an introduction to Pre-ETS skills to achieve their employment or post-secondary education goals. These skills can be taught in group settings through our S.E.L.E.C.T. program at no cost. If an individual requires more personalized training, please contact us to explore available options.

Social Events Lead to Empowering Confident Teens

Explore the exciting world of Pre-Employment Transition Services (Pre-ETS) through engaging social events designed to empower teens. Our S.E.L.E.C.T. events focus on building essential skills like job exploration, workplace readiness, and self-advocacy in a supportive and interactive environment. Each event is facilitated by ABVI staff and trained volunteers, ensuring a meaningful and enjoyable experience.

S.E.L.E.C.T. events are available in the Lowcountry, Midlands and Upstate of South Carolina. To view the full calendar of events or register for an event, visit us online at www.abvisc.org or call us at 803.627.8847.

Services Include:

Job/Career Exploration

Discover different career paths and job opportunities at S.E.L.E.C.T. events. Whether visiting a state park, enjoying a movie outing, or grabbing ice cream, teens will gain insights into various fields and what it takes to succeed in them.

Workplace Readiness

Prepare for the workplace in a fun and approachable way by participating in a S.E.L.E.C.T. event. From workplace hygiene to financial literacy, our events like Make Up and Me and Money Management, Movies, and More help teens build practical skills through engaging activities.

Self-Advocacy Training

Gain confidence and practice self-advocacy in a safe and supportive setting. Our social events encourage teens to speak up for their needs while building lasting skills for independence.
